

Resources from our group

Week 1— voter suppression and routes to increase access

Deanna recommended postcards to swing states. She has 250 cards to mail in October if you want to join in addressing some. Their website is <https://postcardstoswingstates.com>

Nancy Lawrence is volunteering with <https://www.momsrising.org> —it is also a postcard campaign. Their focus areas include healthcare, workplace and maternal justice, early childhood education, and immigration

Equity Alliance is a organization started in Nashville that is working on getting voters registered — Here are 3 ways you can help working as poll watchers to monitor attempts or processes which lead to voter suppression driving voters to the polls working at the phone bank to answer questions / call voters
Their website is <https://theequityalliance.org>

Week 2— inequity in education curriculum, schools and funding

Susanne Tropez-Sims is working with Clark UMC evaluating the viability of a tutor program with children at risk of losing skills during the disruption in classroom programs since March. Contact Susanne at stsims@bellsouth.net

The Equity Alliance is sponsoring a survey on the impact of COVID in in conjunction with OUR FAIR SHARE . Complete the survey at https://ourfairsharenash.com/mc_cid=e4b0eb21b1&mc_eid=b83f428ef3

The video link that Dr Williams shared in our meeting on July 24 is on TED website at https://edu.ava360.com/the-real-story-of-rosa-parks-and-why-we-need-to-confront-myths-about-black-history-david-ikard_34942432b.html